Boca Raton, Florida, May 18, 2017—Just a few short years ago, as a new mom limited in her ability to work and struggling to make ends meet, Lauren Cohen, founder of e-Council Inc. (<http://ecouncilinc.com>), took advice from trusted colleagues and friends to find the silver lining of a whole new career. Today, Lauren's new book will help you to find your silver lining while also helping you in pursuing your American Dream.

In her life-changing, must-read book, "Finding Your Silver Lining in the Business Immigration Process," attorney and business immigration expert Lauren Cohen shares the wisdom that she acquired from her own life experiences and industrious lifestyle to help single mothers and immigrants succeed beyond their dreams. As a single mom herself and a determined legal enthusiast and immigrant, Lauren found and unraveled her silver lining through optimism and big-picture thinking, which she now generously shares. She has turned her own obstacles around from initial skepticism to pure inspiration and hope. The Canadian native encompasses her former studies at Toronto's Osgoode Hall Law School to seek justice for those fallen victim to gloomy visions of an uncertain future and helping them to pursue the American Dream.

"As a lawyer, I had big dreams and expected to quickly find amazing opportunities at every turn in the U.S. However, after experiencing firsthand the painstakingly complicated U.S. immigration process, and finally obtaining my Green Card in 2007 at the age of 40, I realized I had a huge opportunity to help others overcome similar painful experiences.

So I entered the complex, exciting, challenging and often overwhelming field of immigration law."

Attorney, business owner, and now world-class entrepreneur, Lauren applies her hands-on diversity of acquired skills, which she explores in the realm of writing—in her new book "Finding Your Silver Lining in the Business Immigration Process", set to hit the market. Her maternal care and diligent roles in business become a tell-all tale as they expose the secrets to uncovering and exploring one's own silver lining and American Dream. Finding Your Silver Lining in the Business Immigration Process is a springboard to your broader immigration plan, which should include qualified attorneys, accountants, professional business plan writers, and other trusted advisors. Armed with the foreknowledge you need for a successful application, the likelihood of achieving your own American Dream is within your reach.

One of the ultimate goals is for Lauren's book is to fund her new non-profit, Find My Silver Lining, which is well underway to assist working moms and others that had similar challenges faced by single parents. Find My Silver Lining will also fund Zevi's Silver Lining, a program matching children in need of grandparents with grandparents willing to serve in a mentorship or similar role, which will be sponsored in affiliation with Ruth & Norman Rales Jewish Family Services of Boca Raton. Zevi's Silver Linings is dedicated to the memory of Lauren's beloved father, Allan Cohen, who lost his dramatic and painful battle with ALS in 2013.
